

Humanist Association of Manitoba

Annual General Meeting

AND

Public Lecture by special guest

Prof. PZ Myers

“The War Between Science and Religion”

The lecture is free and open to the public, but registration is required

January 9, 2010 ♦ 7:00 p.m.

Professor PZ Myers is a well-known atheist blogger, acclaimed for his fiery and hilarious rhetoric against religious organizations seeking to dilute science education and encroach upon government, as well as for his clear and fascinating science writing.

PZ Myers is the man behind Pharyngula, possibly the most popular science blog on the internet. An Associate Professor of Biology at the University of Minnesota at Morris, MN, Myers was recently named American Humanist of the year 2009 by the American Humanist Association.

In 2005, Myers received the Kolfax Award for the Best Expert Blog. His blog has also been listed by the journal, Nature as the top blog written by a scientist.

Saturday, January 9, 2010

Canad Inns
Club Regent Casino Hotel
1415 Regent Avenue West

AGM (Members only): 4:00 p.m.

Break for Dinner (There is no official group dinner. However, many of us will probably be eating at the Casino or at Aalto's in the Hotel)

Lecture: 7:00 p.m.

Seating is limited. The lecture is free and open to the public, but all attendees need to register. Call 792-0931 to reserve your seat.

www.mb.humanists.ca

